Lively Speculation Over the Preposed Resumption at the Track.

The directors of the Monmouth Park Association have decided to conduct their races over the Long Branch course this year. This statement is sent out over the signature of as authorititive. This is an important ap-nouncement to the turf world in general, and it may not be out of place to review the history of this Association for the first two years. On July 4, 1890, the Monmouth Association on July 4, 1890, the Monmouth Association opened its new track. Race-goars saw a may-pificent park of long stretches, a grand stand that was a model of architectural beauty, and a straight course, the beginning of which was situated somewhere in the south of Jerrey. In addition they saw the horses run the reverse way of the track. That is, t race directly opposite to the way in which they raced on other tracks. The season was a most disastrous one to backers a Pul a most disastrous one to backers, Public form was a will-o'-the-wisp, which one followed, but could never grasp. The Americation got into trouble with the city-public keepers and refused to furnish them with say information concerning the races. The bookies raked up the Disorderly Resolution act, now so well known, and make wholesale raids on the brethrea at Monmouth. Arrests and convictions Finally on Foley's motion the bill was re-committed for purposes of amendment. After the motion was carried Husted said he hoped the Speaker would see that the journal would read that the bill was recom-mitted without retaining its place. at Monmouth. Arrests and convictions followed. Monmouth could not in the face of Will Not Be at the Capitol for a this trouble reopen last season. They tried to have a bill passed, but tailed. This year the situation has not changed one jot. The people of Monmouth County are said to be strongly in lavor of racing, and have beseched the Association to reopen Monmouth's gates. In answer to this appeal the Association decide: to race once more at ALBANY, March S1.—Gov. Flower will not rsume his duties in the Executive Chamber for a day or two.
